THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:	)	Randi S. Ellis

	)	FEE PANEL ORDER NO. 32-A:
	)	FINAL RECOMMENDED
	)	ALLOCATION OF
	)	COMMON BENEFIT FEE AWARDS

As described more fully in Fee Panel Order No. 32 (“FPO-32”) (attached as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference), this Honorable Court appointed the undersigned as members of the Fee Panel, to administer Attorney Fee Funds created under various global MDL Settlement Agreements. The Court charged the Fee Panel with allocating Common Benefit Fee Awards from Common Benefit Fee Funds.

On February 29, 2024, the Fee Panel issued FPO-32 confidentially to all of the 97 Common Benefit Fee Applicants. FPO-32 set out the Fee Panel’s preliminary recommendation of common benefit fee allocations, and described the process the Fee Panel undertook to reach its conclusions. The Fee Panel stated it would hear any objections, and would then file FPO-32 on the MDL docket, along with its final recommendation of common benefit fee allocations.

The Fee Panel received written objections from nine Fee Applicants, and permitted oral argument from each. Having considered these objections and all of the materials described in FPO-32, the Fee Panel now issues its final recommendation of common benefit fee allocations, shown in the attached chart.

As described in the Court’s “Order Establishing Application Protocols for Reimbursement of Common Benefit Attorneys' Fees ("Protocol Order") (docket no. 4344), applicants who filed written objections may appeal their Final Recommended Awards to the MDL Court. See also FPO-32 at 28-30. "Any appeal of the Fee Panel's final fee allocation recommendation shall be reviewed by the Court under an abuse of discretion standard." Protocol Order at 11; see also Settlement Agreement Exhibit R §II.B.4 at R-4 ("Any appeal of an award of the Fee Panel from the Common Benefit Fund will be made to the MDL Court and be reviewed under an abuse of discretion standard."). "The Court has plenary authority regarding the awarding of common benefit attorneys' fees and will make the final determination of an approved distribution of fees from the Fee Fund." Protocol Order at 11.

In FPO-32, the Fee Panel imposed a $50,000 fee for an applicant to file an objection; the Panel explained this fee could be refunded in full or in part, depending on how the Panel ruled on the objection. See FPO-32 at 28. Upon further consideration, the Panel now concludes that all nine objecting applicants will receive full refunds of those fees. Those refunds will be wired back in due course.

With the entry of this final recommendation, the Fee Panel now considers its deliberations closed regarding the Common Benefit Funds addressed in FPO-32 at 4 n.4. Absent requirement otherwise, any future deliberations and conclusions by the Fee Panel regarding any other Common Benefit Funds will be separate from and independent of its work on FPO-32.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
